

Reimagining the Roseland Centre for a New Era of Outdoor Learning & Adventure

The Roseland Adventure Series

Walking at the Roseland Centre

Walking at the Roseland Centre

Saving a place is only beginning.

The real challenge is creating a future worthy of it's potential.

A Place Where Journeys Begin

The Roseland Centre sits within one of Cornwall's most beautiful and characterful landscapes.

A landscape of ancient pathways, hidden valleys, coastal views and communities shaped by the sea.

For generations, people have come here to explore, learn and reconnect with the outdoors.

Welcome to the Roseland Centre

When the Centre faced closure, the community recognised that something special was at risk.

Through determination and a remarkable crowdfunding campaign, the Roseland Centre was saved.

Today, we are creating a new future.

A future where walkers, outdoor groups and communities can continue to discover the landscapes that make the Roseland Peninsula so unique.

Walking with a Purpose

Walking allows us to experience places differently.

At walking pace, we notice more:

- The changing seasons
- The movement of the tides
- The sounds of wildlife
- The stories of villages and communities
- The connection between people and place

The Roseland Peninsula is a landscape to explore slowly.

- Every path has a story.
- Every viewpoint offers a new perspective.
- Every journey creates a memory

The Roseland Peninsula on Foot

The area surrounding the Roseland Centre offers walkers a wonderful variety of experiences.

From coastal paths to woodland trails, from historic villages to quiet countryside lanes, there is something for every group.

Walking opportunities include:

- Coastal exploration
- Woodland and countryside routes
- Historic churches and villages
- Creekside paths and estuary views
- Navigation and challenge walks

Your Walking Adventure, Your Way

The Roseland Centre welcomes:

- ◊ Walking clubs
- ◊ Ramblers groups
- ◊ Outdoor societies
- ◊ Nature groups
- ◊ Community organisations
- ◊ Wellbeing and retreat groups

A flexible base for groups

Groups can bring:

- Route planning

- Equipment
- Programme ideas

We provide:

- Comfortable accommodation options with 5 bunk rooms and spacious shared areas
- Catered or self-catered options
- A space to relax after exploring
- A drying room
- A welcoming base in Cornwall Walking access to the St Just Creek / Fal
- Links to local walking tour experts

Exploring St Just and Beyond

One of the joys of staying at the Roseland Centre is being able to step straight into a landscape full of character. Nearby experiences include:

- The peaceful surroundings of St Just in Roseland
- Creekside paths and Fal estuary views
- Traditional Cornish villages
- Coastal viewpoints and historic heritage sites
- Wildlife-rich countryside
- Access to National Trust Trelissick House and Gardens via the King Harry Ferry
- Direct access to the South West Coast Path

The Centre provides a place to return to after a day of discovery

Planning your Walking Visit

Before arriving, groups may wish to consider:

- ☐ Group size
- ☐ Route choices
- ☐ Walking ability and experience
- ☐ Weather planning
- ☐ Transport requirements
- ☐ Catering preferences

Responsible Adventure

Walking also develops understanding of our relationship with nature; learning to care for the world around us.

We encourage people to:

- Respect the environment
- Understand local landscapes
- Protect wildlife
- Value communities
- Reduce waste where possible

More than a Walk

A walking trip is not only about the miles covered.

It is about:

- The conversations along the way.
- The shared discoveries.
- The quiet moments.
- The sense of achievement.
- The friendships strengthened through time outdoors.

Join the Story

When you stay at the Roseland Centre, you support a community-owned outdoor centre helping future generations experience the benefits of adventure. Your journey becomes part of ours

The Roseland Centre was saved because people believed this place mattered. Now we invite walking groups and outdoor communities to become part of its future.

Bring your group.
Explore Cornwall.
Create memories.
Help write the next chapter.
